
Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice describes the privacy practices of Jones Family Care APRN, LLC affiliated health plans. We use and share protected health information (“PHI”) about you to provide your health benefits as a Molina member. We use and share your PHI to carry out treatment, payment and health care operations. We also use and share your PHI for other reasons as allowed and required by law. We have the duty to keep your health information private and to follow the terms of this Notice. The effective date of this Notice is January 1, 2026.

PHI is health information that includes your name, member number or other identifiers, and is used or shared by us. PHI includes health information about substance use disorders and biometric information (like a voiceprint).

- Why do we use or share your PHI? We use or share your PHI to provide you with health care benefits. Your PHI is also used or shared for treatment, payment, and health care operations.
- For Treatment: We may use or share your PHI to give you, or arrange for, your medical care. This treatment also includes referrals between your doctors or other health care providers. For example, we may share information about your health with a specialist. This helps the specialist talk about your treatment with your doctor.
- For Payment: We may use or share PHI to make decisions on payment. This may include claims, approvals for treatment, and decisions about medical need. Your name, your condition, your treatment, and supplies given may be written on the bill. For example, we may let a doctor know that you have our benefits. We would also tell the doctor about the amount of the bill that we would pay.
- For Health Care Operations: We may use or share PHI about you to run our health plan(s). For example, we may use information from your claim to let you know about a health program that could help you. We may also use or share your PHI to solve your concerns. Your PHI may also be used to see that claims are paid right.

Health care operations involve many daily business needs. It includes but is not limited to, the following:

- Improving quality.
- Actions in health programs to help members with certain conditions (such as asthma).
- Conducting or arranging for medical review.
- Legal services, including fraud and abuse detection and prosecution programs.
- Actions to help us obey laws.
- Addressing member needs, including solving complaints and grievances.

We will share your PHI with other companies (“business associates”) that perform different kinds of activities for our health plan(s). We may also use your PHI to give you reminders about your appointments. We may use your PHI to give you information about other treatment(s), or other health-related benefits and services.

When can we use or share your PHI without getting written authorization (approval) from you? In addition to treatment, payment and health care operations, the law allows or requires Molina to use and share your PHI for several other purposes including the following:

- Required by law: We will use or share information about you as required by law. We will share your PHI when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). This may be for a court case, other legal review, or when required for law enforcement purposes.
 - Public Health: Your PHI may be used or shared for public health activities. This may include helping public health agencies to prevent or control disease.
 - Health Care: Oversight Your PHI may be used or shared with government agencies. They may need your PHI for audits.
 - Research: Your PHI may be used or shared for research in certain cases, such as when approved by a privacy or institutional review board.
 - Legal or Administrative Proceedings: Your PHI may be used or shared for legal proceedings, such as in response to a court order.
 - Law Enforcement: Your PHI may be used or shared with police for law enforcement purposes, such as to help find a suspect, witness or missing person.
 - Health and Safety: Your PHI may be shared to prevent a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public.
 - Government Functions: Your PHI may be shared with the government for special functions. An example would be to protect the President.
 - Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence: Your PHI may be shared with legal authorities if we believe that a person is a victim of abuse or neglect.
 - Workers' Compensation: Your PHI may be used or shared to obey Workers' Compensation laws.
 - Other Disclosures: Your PHI may be shared with funeral directors or coroners to help them do their jobs.
 - Additional Restrictions on Use and Disclosure: Some federal and state laws may require special privacy protections that restrict the use and disclosure of certain types of health information. Such laws may protect the following types of information: alcohol and substance use disorders, biometric information, child or adult abuse or neglect including sexual assault, communicable diseases, genetic information, HIV/AIDS, mental health, minors' information, prescriptions, reproductive health, and sexually transmitted diseases. We will follow the more stringent law, where it applies
 - Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Information: Although we are not a substance use disorder treatment program under federal law (a "SUD Program"), we may receive information from a SUD Program about you. We may not disclose SUD information for use in a civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative proceeding against you unless we have (i) your written consent, or (ii) a court order accompanied by a subpoena or other legal requirement compelling disclosure issued after we and you were given notice and an opportunity to be heard.
 - When do we need your written authorization (approval) to use or share your PHI? We need your written approval to use or share your PHI for a purpose other than those listed in this Notice. We need your authorization before we disclose your PHI for the following: (1) most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes; (2) uses and disclosures for marketing purposes; and (3) uses and disclosures that involve the sale of PHI. You may cancel a written approval that you have given us. Your cancellation will not apply to actions already taken by us because of the approval you already gave to us.

What are your health information rights?

You have the right to:

- Request Restrictions on PHI Uses or Disclosures (Sharing of Your PHI): You may ask us not to share your PHI to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations. You may also ask us not to share your PHI with family, friends or other people you name who are involved in your health care. However, we are not required to agree to your request. You will need to make your request in writing. You may use our form to make your request.
- Request Confidential Communications of PHI: You may ask Molina to give you your PHI in a certain way or at a certain place to help keep your PHI private. We will follow reasonable requests, if you tell us how sharing all or a part of that PHI could put your life at risk. You will need to make your request in writing. You may use our form to make your request.
- Review and Copy Your PHI: You have a right to review and get a copy of your PHI held by us. This may include records used in making coverage, claims and other decisions about you as our member. You will need to make your request in writing. You may use our form to make your request. We may charge you a reasonable fee for copying and mailing the records. In certain cases, we may deny the request. Important Note: We do not have complete copies of your medical records. If you want to look at, get a copy of, or change your medical records, please contact your doctor or clinic.
- Amend Your PHI: You may ask that we amend (change) your PHI. This involves only those records kept by us about you as a member. You will need to make your request in writing. You may use our form to make your request. You may file a letter disagreeing with us if we deny the request.
- Receive an Accounting of PHI Disclosures (Sharing of Your PHI): You may ask that we give you a list of certain parties that we shared your PHI with during the six years prior to the date of your request. The list will not include PHI shared as follows:
 - for treatment, payment or health care operations.
 - to people about their own PHI.
 - sharing done with your authorization.
 - incident to a use or disclosure otherwise permitted or required under applicable law.
 - PHI released in the interest of national security or for intelligence purposes; or
 - as part of a limited data set in accordance with applicable law.
